More about this course

Main tutor Lorenzo Volpini

Learn the skills required to set up your own garden design business. Even those with no previous creative experience find themselves drawing and designing like they never imagined possible. There are lots of real life garden design examples on hand from Caroline's busy design practice.

By the end of the course you will be able to produce competent garden designs and planting plans. Past students have taken on clients even before they have finished the course and have been involved in RHS shows.

This course is suitable for those interested in a career in garden design and wish to get up and running in a concise timescale. As a very intensive course covering all aspects of garden design this course requires at least one day per week for homework in addition to your time spent at the school to ensure that you get the most out of your time with us - ideally more.

Come and learn how to think and present like a designer. We will explore both drawing by hand and computer as well as all of the necessary equipment involved. Basic computer skills required to get the most from this course.

There are plenty of inspirational slide shows and informative handouts. We also have lots of advice about good value suppliers for all things gardening including plants, seeds and bulbs.

Tea, coffee and a delicious lunch are included and all levels of previous experience welcome, including absolute beginners. Come and get to know like-minded people and escape from your busy schedule to our lovely rural location.

Courses will only run with a minimum of three students per course. If there are insufficient bookings we will offer a full refund of the deposit or a place on the next available course.

You will graduate with written feedback and a Cotswold Gardening School Ten Week Diploma Certificate.
